

Local Union of the Year

I.U.P.A. 133

International Union of Police Associations Local 133

The 2025 Local Union of the Year is the International Union of Police Associations Local 133 Terre Haute Police Department. In the last year Local 133 has led by example of what an active Local that supports the labor movement does. More than just being members they have extended their outreach and network to strengthen their Local as well as their relationship with the community.

The membership of IUPA 133 along with the leadership of President Lance Sanders have partnered with the Wabash Valley Chapter of the Southern Indiana Area Labor Federation to continue to grow their connection with the community. THPD and IUPA 133 have been one of the key community groups who have supported the THPD Community Outreach Program. I.U.P.A. Local 133 has donated funds for the new City of Terre Haute flag as well as help fund events such as Operation Save Christmas. They are a dedicated group that serves the community and goes the extra mile.

I.U.P.A. Local 133 embodies the spirit of solidarity as a Local Union of the Year should! Congratulations to the THPD officers and members of Local 133 on receiving the 2025 Local Union of the Year Award!
