Statement from Sam A. Cabral, President of the International Union of Police Associations Regarding Labor Day

This Labor Day, we honor the men and women whose hard work keeps our communities strong, safe, and moving forward.

The I.U.P.A. proudly salutes America's workers and the labor movement that has fought for fair wages, safe workplaces, and dignity on the job.

And while Americans are home enjoying their well-earned day off, our members are leaving their families to protect yours.

Happy Labor Day from the brave men and women of the International Union of Police Associations.

NOTE: Originally chartered in 1979, the International Union of Police Associations is the only chartered labor union that exclusively represents law enforcement personnel. The I.U.P.A. represents active-duty, rank and file law enforcement professionals and emergency medical personnel nationwide – including the U.S. Virgin Islands and Puerto Rico. The I.U.P.A.'s mission is to protect and advance officers' wages, benefits, and work conditions. Membership includes officers from agencies throughout the United States, including the U.S. Virgin Islands and Puerto Rico.
